- Lead activities and support programs while maintaining a fun, safe, and engaging atmosphere.
- Maintain activity supplies, inventories, program materials, and setup needs.
- Support behavior management, conflict resolution, participant check-in, and positive child and family relationships.
- Assist with staff scheduling, staffing coverage, daily adjustments, and communication for programs, camps, and events.
- Support OST license compliance, youth safety standards, and Talisker Club service expectations.
- Assist with special event execution, transportation coordination, reservations, and participant communications as needed.
- Other duties as assigned.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide day-to-day guidance to Wildstar and activities staff during programs, camps, and events.
- Support staff on child engagement techniques, program expectations, safety practices, and activity execution.
- Assist with staffing schedules, shift coverage, daily communication, and operational follow-up under the direction of the Wildstar Manager.

WORKING CONDITIONS AND PHYSICAL EFFORT:

- Includes evenings, weekends, holidays, and school breaks, with flexibility required during peak programming seasons.
- Work is performed onsite and may include indoor and outdoor youth programming environments.
- Must be able to support safe program execution, activity setup, guest check-in, and daily operational needs.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience working with children ages 5-15.
- Strong experience working with children and leading groups of youth.
- Creative, energetic personality with the ability to facilitate engaging activities and curriculum.
- Strong organizational, written communication, and verbal communication skills.
- Experience supporting staff schedules and daily staffing adjustments.
- Ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment.
- Valid Driver's License required.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Preferred background in teaching, camp, recreation, childcare, hospitality, education, child development, or youth programming.
- CPR/First Aid Certification preferred.
- Experience with Jonas POS, Pacesetter, Whoosh, ADP, or similar platforms preferred.
- Minimum intermediate-advanced skiing or snowboarding proficiency preferred.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Highly organized, energetic, and comfortable balancing activity planning with day-to-day operational responsibilities.
- Excellent with children and families, with the ability to build positive relationships and support safe youth engagement.
- Capable of creating lesson plans, activity schedules, and engaging camp or youth programming experiences.
- Able to support program staffing, OST compliance, activity supplies, special events, and member satisfaction under the direction of the Wildstar Manager.
